

Why is PCN Faith & Health in Action Initiative important?

- Connection: connect the dots, expand, education
- Collaboration: don't compete
- Community support and volunteerism
- Time out to focus on our consumers
- Faith-based: work toward a common goal
- Support each other
- Networking
- Pooling resources
- Strengthening communities that exist
- Work smarter, not harder
- Partnerships
- Interfaith and beyond
- Faith-based organizations interacting with greater community: The County, Cities, CBO's, Foundations, education, PCN

Mission of Initiative: Linking people to services and each other

2008/2009 Project Ideas

1) Resource Development (raise local dollars for local causes)
-$ Buck Program/Community Wellness Fund

2) Community Help Fair
-Stand Down Day as model

Other Ideas: (may happen if resources are developed or leadership develops around a particular area)

- Resource Linking (via call-in, web-based type services--like Network of Care/2-1-1 Program)
- Health Ministry/Parish Nursing
- CSGB $ for our work
- Youth Mentoring
- Auburn Homeless
- Link to Gathering Inn
- Senior & adult issues
- Seniors Pastors Conference

Next Steps

- 1) PCN to set up Quarterly meeting schedule for PCN Faith & Health in Action Council
- 2) PCN to coordinate with Senior Pastor population via current efforts already happening (PICO, W. Jessup University)
- 3) PCN to Coordinate with other health fairs in Placer County to determine next steps for Help Fair idea
- 4) PCN to work with Mark, others to identify business champions for community wellness effort
